

Law Office of Omar S. Anorga Fosters Goodwill to Local College-Bound Students

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Los Angeles, CA (March 18, 2010) -- In support of its mission to foster and promote goodwill among college-bound students, the Law Office of Omar S. Anorga is a proud to assist the Good Samaritan Scholarship of South East Los Angeles.

The organization's goal is to empower individuals to impact society through advanced education while giving back to their community.

Attorney Omar S. Anorga, has made extraordinary contributions to the Good Samaritan Scholarship program by providing pro bono services since 2008. As a board member, he donates his time by contributing to meetings, drafting correspondences, and giving speeches when called upon.

"I support the tremendous efforts this non-profit organization is making to impact the lives of students and the community," says Anorga. "As a minority-business owner in downtown Los Angeles, I feel that I can serve as a positive role model, particularly for young Latinos students."

The Good Samaritan Scholarship is a monetary award that is used to provide scholarship assistance for students who demonstrate community leadership, academic merit and financial need. For more information, visit www.worksofpowerinc.org/scholarship.

The Law Office of Omar S. Anorga also supports the Walk for Autism Speaks, the single most powerful force to fund vital research for the cure of autism. Register and walk to change the future on April 24, 2010 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Learn more at: www.walknowforautismspeaks.org
