

The Law Office of Omar S. Anorga Hires L.A. Marketing Firm

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Los Angeles, CA (March 23, 2010) – The Law Office of Omar S. Anorga recently announced the hiring of RAINDEO | Beautiful to handle the firm’s marketing, advertising and public relations duties.

“Having RAINDEO | Beautiful on board is a perfect match with my firm’s long-term goals and objectives,” says Founder Omar Anorga. “Our approach to doing business is similar in that they treat clients like family and they convey trust and dedication to the work they produce.”

The marketing agency will handle all aspects of marketing for the Law Office of Omar S. Anorga ranging from new business development, advertising, PR, social media, press releases, promotions and speaking engagements. RAINDEO | Beautiful experience is impressive, working with high-profile companies across many industries in law, healthcare, education, non-profit, entertainment, automotive, fashion and apparel.

“The Law Office of Omar S. Anorga is one of the best litigation firms in Southern California,” says Mark Quest, co-owner of RAINDEO | Beautiful. “We’re honored to be working with a law practice that focuses its services to businesses that are minority-owned and female-owned.”

The law firm represents several small to medium size businesses in various industries, like healthcare, hospitality, manufacturing, and several others.

“The convergence with RAINDEO | Beautiful is key for our future growth,” continues Anorga. “The rules of marketing for law are constantly changing and we feel they are on the pulse of where we need to be to continually grow our practice.”
